"Fall 1904" revised

MISSING DESPATCHES FOUND!

About five minutes after GRAUSTARK #108 went into the mail, I discovered two telegrams and a special delivery air mail post card which had arrived last Friday, and which my wife had neglected to put on my desk. The moves ordered on those communications change the picture somewhat in 1966B, as follows:

ENGLAND (McCallum, vice Davidson): A St. F holds; F Sve S GERMAN F Den-Bal; F North Sea S GERMAN A Hol-Bel; F Wes-Lyo; F Mid-Wes; F Eng-Mid.

FRANCE (Nyger): A Bel-Pur; A Pie-Bre; F Bre-Mid; F Por S F Bre-Mid; A Ruh-Kie; "F Spa-Gibraltar". The fleet in Spain's southern coast holds.

GERMANY (Turner, vice Svenson): A War holds; A Man-Bur; A Bur-Par; A Hol-Bel; A Bor-Kie; F Den-Bal.

ITALY (Ward): A Tyr S A Ven; A Von S A Tyr; F Tun-Ion; F Tyr S F Tun-Ion; A Pie-Mar.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY (Cline): F Tri-Alb; A Bud-Tri; A Ser & A Vie S A Bud-Tri.

RUSSIA (von Metzke): F Bal S GERMAN F Den-Kie.

TURKEY (Pournelle): A Ser-Mos; A Gal-War; A Ukr S A Gal-War; F Ion-Gre; F Eas-Ion; F Akr S F Eas-Ion.

Underlined moves are not possible. The French army in Belgium must retreat to Picardy. The German army in Warsaw must retreat to Livonia, Prussia, or Silesia. The direction of this retreat should be submitted with the "Winter 1904" moves, and the builds or removals of other players may be made contingent upon it. The High Combatant Powers now control the following supply centers:

ENGLAND: Edi, Liv, Lon, Nor, St.P,

ITALY: Mar, Nap, Rom, Tun, Ven. (5)

Svea (6)

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY: Bud, Ser, Tri, Vie. (4)

FRANCE: Bre, Por, Spa. (3)

TURKEY: Ank, Bul, Con, Gre, Mos, Rum,

GERMANY: Bel, Fer, Den, Hol, Kie, Mun,

Scv, Smy, War. (9)

Par. (7)

Turkey may build three new units, and Germany may build one. France must remove three units. The Russian fleet dislodged from the Baltic is removed, as Russia has lost all its supply centers. The deadline for these "Winter 1904" moves remains NOON, SATURDAY 5 NOVEMBER 1966.

UNITED STATES POST OFFICE HONOR ROLL

If most Diplomacy players are suddenly asked: "Who is playing in the most postal Diplomacy games?", they will reply, "James Latimer". And yet a check shows that Latimer is at best tied for third with this dubious distinction. Chief among those who are using postal Diplomacy as a means for correcting the chronic deficits of the Post Office is Conrad von Metzke, who is not only playing 17 postal Diplomacy games, but is renting a post office box to accommodate them.

Next to von Metzke is Charles Reinsol with 13; this, however, is a tenuous distinction, as he is likely at any time to fly off the handle about a gamesmaster's editorial policy and resign. This leaves James Latimer and Charles Brannan in third place with 12 games each. Following them are:

10 - John McCallum	Charles Turner	This is
9 - John Koning	Robert Ward
Derek Nelson	5 - Robert Cline	O At
Charles Wells	Leonard Garland	P Great
8 - Alan Huff	Harold Peck	E Intervals
7 - Brian Bailey	Jerry Pournelle	R This
James Dygert	Gail Schor	A Appears
Margarot Gemignani	4 - Edi Birsan	T To
John Smythe	James Goldman	I Inflamm
Rod Walker	Banks Mobane	O Optic
6 - Wayne Hohoisel	Donald Miller	N Nerves
Terry Kuch	Mark Owings
David Lobling	George Parks	# 309
Earl Thompson	Monte Zelazny

This tabulation includes only current postal Diplomacy games carried on GRAUSTARK rosters.

POSTAL DIPLOMACY ROSTERS: ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS

This listing updates the rosters which appeared in GRAUSTARKS #100 and #104. In 1964D, John Smythe was replaced by John Koning as Gamesmaster in "Spring 1911". Don Rocklios, who resigned Russia in "Fall 1901", was replaced by James Thomas in that game. Thomas was eliminated in "Fall 1905".
